RESOLUTION OF COMMENDATION - 2016 WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH INEZ G. APPLING

WHEREAS, as history is filled with the far reaching accomplishments of women, Irvington Township honors one of their own, Inez G. Appling, who should be recognized for her four decades in Education and Empowering Future Leaders; and

WHEREAS, Inez Appling, retired Academic Vice Principal from Westside High School, has been recognized by the City of East Orange Recreation Department for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in educational endeavors and community service; and

WHEREAS, with 40 years of contributions in education, Ms. Appling's progressive career has been inclined by her unrelenting work ethic, commitment to religion and family support system. She began her career as a teacher; worked summers writing science curriculums; progressed to Science Supervisor in 1996 and earned her definitive position as the scheduling and academic vice principal of Westside High School from 1997 to 2006. She spent the last nine years before retirement assisting the principal, with ensuring that academic programs met district and state requirements. Her efforts in the field of education did not go unnoticed. She was featured in "The Record - Bergen Edition" (1981), for her positive influence on current and past students. A chapter in "Urban Classroom Portraits: Teachers Who Make a Difference," (1988) by Dr. Mary E. Bredemeier, was entirely focused on Ms. Appling's compassion, high expectations for her students and achievements as an educator; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Appling obtained a Bachelor of Science in Biology and Social Science from Alabama State University in 1966, Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) from Montclair State University in 1982 and Certification in Administration and Supervision from New Jersey City State University in 1988; and

WHEREAS, she has earned the following accolades: Cambridge Who's Who VIP Award 2010; Outstanding Educator of the Year Award by the New Jersey Chapter of Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University Alumni Association (FAMUAA-NJC) March 2007; "2006 Educational Leadership and Service Award to The Newark Public Schools (NPS) and Students" from City Administrators and Supervisors Association (CASA); Strathmore Who's Who Award 2006-2007; Governor's Award for Excellence in Teaching in 1991; and she was also a National Science Foundation Presidential Awards for Excellence in Science Nominee in 1990; and

WHEREAS, due to her facilitating nature as a teacher and need to help others, Ms. Appling served as Co-Chairperson of the Barringer PTSA from September 1991-June 1995. She also volunteered her time shopping, preparing and delivering food to families in need during the holiday season through the Barringer Prep Jr. Red Cross for over twenty years. She has participated in charity work at Calvary Baptist Church, Hospice trained volunteer, Argyle Road Block Association and The Eastward Collaborative. A former executive board member of the City Association of Supervisors & Administrators, she maintains affiliations with the Essex County Retired Teachers Association, NJ Retirees' Education Association CASA-R, and the Alabama State University National Alumni Association, she is an executive board member for the New Jersey Chapter of the National Alumni Association; and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Appling is a former resident of East Orange. She currently resides in Irvington with her husband Henry Appling Sr. They were blessed with a son, Henry Jr. (Hank) and a granddaughter, Zuri; and

WHEREAS, between spending time with her family, reading and traveling, Ms. Appling plans to involve herself in volunteering and consulting work in the coming years. Though she is retired, her skills and compassion have not been lost. As she moves toward her upcoming goals, it is obvious she will meet with success in the best way she knows how: through helping others; and

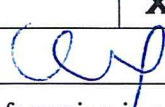

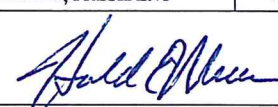

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE MUNICIPAL COUNCIL OF THE TOWNSHIP OF IRVINGTON that it hereby commends Inez G. Appling for her many educational, civic and community minded contributions to the residents of the Township of Irvington; and.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes of this Governing Body in lasting tribute to Inez G. Appling and Women's History Month.
