Dear Christopher Hellwig,

This letter is to inform you of the financial award of $5,763.15 from the Strengthening Local Public Health Capacity Training Scholarship. Given the rapid evolution of the COVID-19 response and preparedness activities, the scope of this grant will allow you to use awarded funds for any combination of training and/or approve COVID-19 Preparedness activities.* Please note, you are allowed to modify the use of these funds from your initial application, given capacity for trainings and need for preparedness activities.

Approved COVID-19 Preparedness Activities include:

- Active monitoring (AM) for persons being monitored in the community
- Outreach to possible close contacts of persons being monitored
- Outreach to healthcare providers, community agencies, and other public health stakeholders
- Staff training activities related to health and safety during coronavirus preparedness activities (i.e. Temperature monitoring training; proper use of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE); etc.)
- Purchase of Thermometers and/or Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- Other (Must be specified on final report and must be related to Coronavirus Preparedness)

As a reminder, trainings must be attended and all scholarship funds must be spent by July 31st. Only previously approved trainings or conferences will be accepted. All scholarship recipients are required to complete the final report (attached) and return to NJACCHO via info@njaccho.org by July 31, 2020.

If you have any questions, please contact NJACCHO at info@njaccho.org.

Thank you,

Megan Avallone
